About Govinda Rangarajan

I am Dr. Govinda Rangarajan and I am originally from Srirangam. In 1996, I became the first priest at the Hindu Temple of Florida where I conducted the first Kumbhabhishekam. I am a Sanskrit scholar by education and I currently work in the IT sector as a Software Project Manager in the US Department of Veterans Affairs.

I have been engaged in temple operational affairs for over 27 years. I am also a sitting trustee of the temple and the current religious committee chair. Recently, I led the religious events of Temple's Pushkara Mahakumbhabhishekam and several Brahmotsavam celebrations. As a religious committee chair, I educate the public about the importance and significance of each and every major festival at the temple, and have been conducting classes on Bhagavad Gita, Hinduism and Bhagavatam for over 15 years. I would like to continue my services as both a trustee and as religious committee chair to better serve the community and Shri Satyanarayana Swamy.

I humbly seek your support for re-election as a trustee.
