

Sunitha Saravanan is a cherished member of the Tampa community, having dedicated 26 years to its growth and prosperity. Since 1997, she has been an integral part of the temple, actively engaging in religious functions and nurturing spiritual connections. Beyond her religious commitments, Sunitha is a highly skilled physical therapist, extending her compassionate care to the elderly within a nursing home setting.

Moreover, Sunitha's passion for Carnatic music has flourished over the past 15 years, where she has not only honed her skills as a teacher but also founded the esteemed Divyaghanam School of Music. Through both in-person and online instruction, she has enriched the lives of countless students, preserving and promoting this rich cultural heritage.

In addition to her professional pursuits, Sunitha's commitment to community service is exemplary. She holds esteemed positions, such as President of the Tampa Tamil Association and Treasurer of the Federation of Indian Associations, showcasing her leadership and organizational prowess. Her involvement in initiatives like Aim for Seva and Akshayapatra reflects her dedication to humanitarian causes, embodying the values of service and compassion.

Having served two consecutive terms on the trustee board and contributed as a cultural chair at the Hindu Temple of Florida, Sunitha's experience and vision are invaluable. With her daughters now pursuing their academic endeavors, Sunitha is eager to devote her time and energy to furthering the temple's mission and fostering a positive impact within the community.

Sunitha Saravanan's multifaceted talents, unwavering dedication, and proven leadership make her an ideal candidate to continue serving the temple and uplifting the Tampa community.

Your vote for her is a vote for progress, inclusivity, and enduring spiritual enrichment.
